XLR8 uses the approach of incorporating biomechanical and functional truths of how the body moves to better prepare your athlete for the demands of the human body's movement systems. Our program will ensure your athlete the best opportunity to reach his or her genetic potential and fully excel, while minimizing the risks of injury. We incorporate methodologies to encourage a solid & confident mindset with goal setting, increased focus, self-talk, and visualization. XLR8 utilizes pro-style training to enhance the athlete's speed, strength, conditioning, grit, stamina, endurance, and overall work ethic, while promoting confidence, encouragement, and great attitudes.
